

JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH MONOLOGUE

The peach broke out of the garden and over the edge of the hill, rolling and bouncing down the steep slope at a terrific pace. Faster and faster, flattening fences and hedges, scattering sheep. Through villages, over bridges, down down down. People screamed, animals stampeded. The giant peach was unstoppable! It hurtled towards the towering white cliffs... a hundred yards... fifty, ten five... it reached the edge! Still rolling, hanging suspended! Then... it began to fall...