THE LOCAL HONEYS AT METROPOLIS

Arlington Heights, Ill., January 31, 2019 – Metropolis hosts Folk/Bluegrass trio The Local Honeys on March 13, 2019.

The Local Honeys are comprised of Linda Jean Stokley and Montana Hobbs. Stokley, from the rolling hills of the Bluegrass, and Hobbs from the foothills of the Appalachian region have developed a sweet sound of the bluegrass kissing the mountains.

They have dedicated themselves to the preservation of old music and the creation of new music. Their songwriting often reflects subject matter that little girls ought not talk about. This element played a strong impact in the production and creation of their debut album, “Little Girls Actin’ Like Men.”

Including both traditional and original songs, “Little Girls” showcases the Honey’s ability to tear into hard driving fiddle tunes, sing the high lonesome sound, and tell a damn good story.

The Local Honeys will be at Metropolis on Wednesday, March 13, 2019 at 7:30 P.M. Tickets are $25, Stage Tables are $30. All tickets can be purchased at MetropolisArts.com or by visiting or calling the Box Office at 847.577.2121.

The Local Honeys is the third show of the 2018-2019 Presenters’ Club Series at Metropolis, which presents and promotes new and unique music acts across multiple genres. Members of this club help determine bands for the season, by identifying emerging & popular artists through voting.

Metropolis thanks its generous media partner Tribune Media Group. Metropolis is partially supported by a grant from the Illinois Arts Council Agency.

Metropolis is located in the heart of Chicago’s northwest suburbs in downtown Arlington Heights at the intersection of Campbell and Vail Avenue (111 West Campbell Street). Street parking is available. Free parking is available in the public garage behind the theatre.
